

The cult band 'Revengers' from Zweibrücken convinces with authenticity, professionalism and a cool rockshow. In addition to international performances, for example in France, Luxembourg and Spain, they initially play as support for Percy Sledge, Suzie Quatro, Tony Sheridan, Middle of the Road, The Sweet, Steppenwolf, to name just a few. During this time, the band at 'yesterday man' Chris Andrews also provided instrumental accompaniment for a longer period of time.

This also led to the first TV appearances such as in the ZDF Fernsehgarten and the ZDF Silvester Show 'Silvester Trümpfe' at Brandenburg Gate in Berlin. In the last couple of years, they also played at the Freedom Fest on Ramstein Air Base to celebrate the 4th of July.

Meanwhile, the 'Revengers' have developed into one of the best rock cover bands in the Saar-Palatinate region and beyond.

Especially Charly Fottner's guitar playing and Michell Benzel's extraordinary rock vocals make up the unmistakable sound of the band. Michell is more than just a cover-singer, he also makes the last audience live out his inner rockstar in front of the stage.

'Revengers' are more than 30 years of finest Rock, rocksongs close to the original, but always provided with their own touch. A rock band of the first hour that inspires young and older audiences alike and gives the audience an unforgettable live-experience.

Current line-up:

Michell Benzel – voc

Robert Selesi – bass, backing-voc

Erwin Winter – drums

Charly Fottner – guitar

Ralf Oswald – keys, backing-voc